Course Description and Prerequisites

Course Catalog Description
This course will provide an understanding of the characteristics and needs of culturally diverse clients. The course will include issues related to ethnic groups, gender, family systems, differing lifestyles and the impact of social, political and economic factors on specific populations. Techniques for counseling culturally diverse populations will also be covered.

Instructor’s Description
This course challenges students to discover, acknowledge, and question their perceptions of prejudice around ethnic, sexual, and social diversity. Because we tend to be socially and involuntarily conditioned toward dominant culture ideals, the course may cause some discomfort as we grow in our understanding of how prejudice develops, how dominant culture themes are rewarded and maintained, and the damage that it does to marginalized groups.

Instructional Methods and Activities
Most didactic material in the course will be covered by traditional experiences, which include lecture, class discussion, demonstration, and experiential activities. Student self-exploration, self-disclosure, and collaboration with peers will be integral for this course.

This course includes delivery of instruction via Blackboard. Students can find support and tutorials for using the Blackboard platform at https://en-us.help.blackboard.com/User_Filter/Student/No_Mobile/Higher_Education Field experience and other web-based tools may be utilized. For a full description of web tools used in this course, please review the Course Resources section of our Blackboard home page.

This syllabus subject to change in order to better meet course objectives per discretion of instructor.
Student Learning Outcomes

Student learning outcomes are directly related to the standards for accreditation and certification, including those set forth by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) and the Texas Education Agency (TEA).

CACREP Common Core Area Standards: 2.F.2 Social and Cultural Diversity
The student will demonstrate understanding and application of
a. multicultural and pluralistic characteristics within and among diverse groups nationally and internationally
b. theories and models of multicultural counseling, cultural identity development, and social justice and advocacy
c. multicultural counseling competencies
d. the impact of heritage, attitudes, beliefs, understandings, and acculturative experiences on an individual’s views of others
e. the effects of power and privilege for counselors and clients
f. help-seeking behaviors of diverse clients
g. the impact of spiritual beliefs on clients’ and counselors’ worldviews
h. strategies for identifying and eliminating barriers, prejudices, and processes of intentional and unintentional oppression and discrimination

Major Requirements, Demonstration of Mastery and Evaluation

The Multicultural and Social Justice Counseling Competencies endorsed by ACA in 2015 include four developmental domains: (1) counselor self-awareness, (2) client worldview, (3) counseling relationship, and (4) counseling and advocacy interventions, which are reflected in the required course activities:

1. Comprehensive Genogram (Counselor Self-Awareness):

   A. Develop a 3-generation comprehensive genogram that includes the following:

   - Names of maternal/paternal grandparents (1st gen), parents and siblings (2nd gen), you and your siblings (3rd gen)
     (You may include other significant family members.)

   - For each person, include the following:
     - Birth date/age
     - Ethnic background
     - Birthplace
     - Religious affiliation
     - Date of marriage
     - Level of education
     - Occupation/career
     - Values, interests, hobbies
     - Three adjectives

   B. Write a narrative account of your genogram by generation including
     - Family Rules
       - Dating
       - Communication (family secrets)

     - Family Member Roles
       - Disciplinarian/Nurturer
       - Ill/Caregiver
       - Leaders/Followers
       - Financial Decision

     - Values and Beliefs
       - Education
       - Career/work/job/occupation
       - Marriage and divorce
       - Children/pregnancy-abortion
       - Gender roles
       - Financial Decision
       - Other ethnic groups
       - Religion
       - Treatment of different generations and rites of passage
       - Socioeconomic status
       - Celebrations (quinceañeras, sweet sixteen, anniversaries, graduations, etc.).

     - Significant events that impacted on the family
       - War
       - Natural disasters
       - Accidents
       - Marriages/divorces
       - Children
       - Death

   C. Submit with your genogram with a summary of key points, issues, and events that have had an impact on who you are today. Make sure to address the following
     - What in your family’s background influenced your beliefs, values, attitudes, occupational and career choices, achievements, and family rules?
     - Have you changed any of your beliefs, values, attitudes, rules, choices over the years? To what or whom do you attribute these changes?
     - Describe any personal perspectives or insights you experienced as a result of this assignment.

   D. Each student will do a short presentation (approx. 15 minutes on his/her genogram). You may use posters, diagrams, photographs, a short media presentation, etc.

   (Note: If this assignment poses a special problem for you and you wish to use a substitute family, please see me ASAP.)
2. Comprehensive Research Project on Specific Population (Client Worldview):
Students will work in groups of three or four and research thoroughly a diverse ethnic or sociocultural group that has experienced marginalization and oppression. Suggested ethnic and cultural groups can be found below. Students are welcome to submit additional groups for consideration.

- Groups of African origin
- Native American groups
- Judaism
- People with severe mental illness
- Men
- Elderly
- Groups of Asian origin
- Groups of South/Central American origin
- Hinduism
- Christianity
- People with physical disabilities
- Women
- Groups of Arabic origin
- Groups of European origin
- Islam
- Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual groups
- Transgendered groups

A. Describe the characteristics of your population. Use statistics and credible sources.
B. Identify the following dynamics
   - family systems
   - problems/concerns/needs
   - Influences such as political, economic, environmental, societal, and cultural,
   - resources for information (support groups, hotlines, 800 numbers, etc.), and
   - lifespan and multicultural issues related to your population.
C. Identify counseling techniques/approaches/interventions that have proven effective with your population. Include research, interviews, videotapes, or any other sources of information that provide a comprehensive understanding of your population.
D. Use APA style and include at least ten (10) scholarly references.

3. In-class Reflection (Counselor Self-awareness and Client Worldview):
Each class meeting will include a small group discussion of the course material. Randomized groups will process assigned content for understanding or personal reflection and impact. Each small group will reflect on a unique question, and then report a summary to the larger group. Each group will include a process observer. Rubrics for the process observer can be found in the appendix of the syllabus.

4. Midterm and Final Exam
The midterm exam will cover material to that point in the summer session. The final exam is not cumulative and will cover the material presented after the midterm. Exam format may include short essay, short answer, multiple choice, true/false, and/or fill in the blank. Exams will be administered via Blackboard and will utilize Respondus Monitor. Respondus Monitor requires a webcam. Students who do not have access to a computer with webcam are required to test in a proctored environment. Instructions for Respondus and COLTT Exam Proctoring can be found in the “Course Materials” link on Blackboard. Please ensure ample time to troubleshoot any technical problems with the exams (see Technical Assistance above for contact numbers).
EVALUATION & GRADING

Means of Assessment—Grades will be determined according to the student’s performance on the requirements for this course. The grade earned will be based on the following weight distribution with a possible total of 100%.

Each of these sections can be converted into points by averaging the grades received per section and multiplying that average by the assigned percentage. Then, add all points to determine final grade; for example, if the grades received are 90, 85, 80, and 95 on pop quizzes, the average of these four grades would be an 88. Multiply 88 by .40, which results in 35.2 points out of a possible 40. Do the same for all sections.

UTRGV GRADING SCALE

The grade for this course will be determined by the successful completion of the course requirements and the above criteria. UTRGV uses straight letter grades (A, B, C, F).

COURSE POLICIES

Attendance Policy and Class Participation
Students are expected to attend, participate and engage in all classes. This includes, but is not limited to, participating in class activities, group discussions, peer observations, and group exercises. Attendance and assignments of the C & G Faculty Seminar Series and reading list will be included in the participation grade (only applies to Fall and Spring courses). It should be noted that attendance and punctuality is expected and will be excused only under special circumstances as determined by the instructor. Given that true learning takes place in discussion and interaction with others where students express and articulate their ideas, participation is a crucial aspect of this course.

One absence is allowed in this class. Each absence thereafter, for whatever reason, will result in five points off of the final grade. Students should ensure that child care, back-up childcare, a reliable car and back-up carpool system, and plan for work-related absences, e.g., training, faculty meetings, or Open House are identified prior to the course. Absences should be reported via e-mail to the instructor. Attendance is managed via sign-in sheet. It is the student’s responsibility to sign in for each class. Failure to sign in before the instructor leaves class will be considered an absence.

Class begins at 5:00 pm and ends at 10:15 pm. Students not in attendance during these times without prior notification to the instructor will be considered absent. It is the student’s responsibility to inquire about class notes, handouts, and/or exercises.

Tech Breaks: Two 15 minute breaks are scheduled during each class meetings for students to attend to personal matters, including going to the restroom, buying snacks, and checking texts/social media. Students who refrain from using their cell phones during class can expect higher grades for Active Participation.

Make-up Policy
All assignments are expected to be complete and submitted on time in accordance with the due dates. Late papers/projects will not receive full credit. All late assignments will result in point deductions: 1 day late = -10 points, 2 days late = -20 points, 3+ days late = will not be accepted. However, some assignments will not be accepted late, regardless of an excused/unexcused absence. An assignment is considered late if it is not turned in on the due date prior to class.

This syllabus subject to change in order to better meet course objectives per discretion of instructor.
No make-up quizzes, nor incomplete ("I") grades will be given, except in cases that involve specific, emergency, professionally documented circumstances. “I” grades will not be given in lieu of a failing or poor grade.

Written Assignments
All written assignments must follow APA guidelines. The APA Publication Manual (6th ed.) is a recommended textbook for this class. All work must be typed. Work should be double-spaced, with a 12-point Times New Roman font. Graduate-level written expression is expected, and grammatical errors and misspellings are subject to a decrease in grade. For student who struggle with writing, I strongly encourage the use of the writing center on campus. Grades will reflect writing proficiency.

Student Responsibility
The student is ultimately responsible for becoming familiar with all graduate and program requirements and general information listed in the catalog for the M.Ed. Degree in Counseling. The student is also responsible for becoming familiar with any certification and licensure requirements, application processes, and deadlines that apply to him/her.

Student Professionalism
Professionalism can best be described as the ability to manage one’s emotions and handle relationships. In other words, a professional is a socially skilled or emotionally intelligent person. Goleman (1995) best describes this concept: “emotional intelligence - abilities such as being able to motivate oneself and persist in the face of frustrations; to control impulse and delay gratification; to regulate one’s mood and keep distress from swamping the ability to think; to empathize and to hope” (p. 34). Students are expected to exercise professionalism at all times.

Evaluation of students’ coursework may be affected by unprofessional behavior (e.g., cheating, plagiarism, breaking confidentiality, unwillingness to work with peers, consistently not being prepared for class, excessive tardies/absences, and/or other related behaviors). The consequences of these behaviors may range from (but are not limited to) a verbal reprimand to dismissal from the Counseling and Guidance Program.

Professional Ethics
Students are expected to abide by all relevant ethical codes, including but not limited to those set forth by the American Counseling Association, the American School Counselor Association, the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapists, the Association for Specialists in Group Work, the Texas State Board of Examiners for Licensed Professional Counselors, as well as any others associated with the type of counseling intervention being provided. Confidentiality also applies to all issues or comments made in the classroom. Failure to comply with ethical standards will result in consequences deemed appropriate by the Counseling and Guidance program faculty, including dismissal from the program. TEA Standards: I. 8; VI 3.

Confidentiality
Confidentiality will strictly be enforced. Students will be expected to observe this ethical standard by not sharing any information of a personal nature shared in class with anyone outside of class. Breach of this ethical standard will constitute basis for dismissal from the UTRGV Counseling Program with a grade of F in the course.

Program Requirements

C & G Faculty Seminar Series (Applies to Fall and Spring Courses Only)
Students must attend one seminar from the Counseling Faculty Seminar Series offerings for this semester. Students may attend more than one seminar; however, only one is required per semester regardless of the number of hours they are enrolled. Seminar dates TBA. Students must turn in a one-page reflection paper based on their seminar experience.

C & G Program Reading List (Applies to Fall and Spring Courses Only)
Students must read one book from the UTRGV Counseling and Guidance Program reading list. Students may read more than one book on the list each semester; however, only one is required per semester regardless of the number of hours they are enrolled.

This syllabus subject to change in order to better meet course objectives per discretion of instructor.
Students must turn in a one-page reflection paper based on the book they read.

TExES Representative

School Counseling Specialization Only: The TExES Representative is required to be taken prior to the TExES Certification Exam and during COUN 6365 Counseling Practicum; however, it is not required to pass the exam. Failure to take the TExES Representative prior to COUN 6369-Counseling Internship I could result in being dropped from the Practicum II course.

Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE)

As part of the Counseling Program’s exit requirements for graduation, students are required to successfully complete (pass) the program written comprehensive exam. The Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE) is the exam selected for this requirement. If the student is not able to successfully complete this exam during COUN 6365 Counseling Practicum, he/she will be given another opportunity during COUN 6369-Counseling Internship I.

Remember, students will be given one opportunity during COUN 6365 Counseling Practicum and one opportunity during COUN 6369-Counseling Internship I, if needed. The test date for the fall semester is the third Saturday in September, for the spring semester it is the first Saturday in February, and for the summer semester it is the third Saturday in July. These dates remain constant so please plan accordingly. Specific information will be given during the Practicum course.

Students will need to register through the Testing Center ePay website and pay a registration fee of $20. In addition, students need to bring a $50 money order made payable to CCE on that day along with a valid photo ID. Every student is required to take the CPCE prior to enrolling in EPSY 6369-Practicum II/COUN 6369-Counseling Internship I. Previous course texts and resources contain all necessary review material.

It is important to note that students will not be able to graduate if they do not successfully pass the CPCE exam, even if they have completed all course requirements.

Recommended Textbooks for Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination CPCE:

Passing the CPCE is graduation requirement, and may initially be attempted during COUN 6365 Practicum I. In Brownsville, the CPCE is scheduled for the second Saturday in November and the second Saturday in April. The CPCE is scheduled at both campuses the third Saturday in July. Students must take the CPCE at their home campus, unless graduation is dependent on the third and final attempt. Make plans accordingly.

Additional Considerations

Syllabus Disclaimer

While the provisions of this syllabus are as accurate and complete as possible, the instructor reserves the right to change any provisions herein, not covered by the UTRGV or UT Regent Rules, with notice if circumstances so warrant. Every effort will be made to keep students advised of such changes and information about such changes will be available at all times from the instructor. It is the responsibility of each student to know what changes, if any, have been made to the provisions of this syllabus and to successfully complete the requirements of this course. Questions regarding information on the syllabus and course requirements may be addressed by students.

This syllabus subject to change in order to better meet course objectives per discretion of instructor.
General Tips for Success

- Listen to the lecturer or classmates during the discussion/lecture.
- Be ready to discuss material from previous classes (e.g. methods and techniques of counseling, human social/emotional/personal development, theories, etc.)
- Allow plenty of time to work on assignments in order to ensure timely submission.
- Proof-read and check written assignments for accuracy prior to submitting.
- Bring materials to class (i.e. books, assignments, projects).
- Exchange phone numbers and e-mail addresses with classmates to clarify any information or attain help, if needed.
- Remember there have been MANY individuals that have been asked to do this. They succeeded in completing the course and we expect that all future students can too.

CEP-16 Program Policy

Be advised that the UTRGV College of Education and P-16 Integration conducts ongoing research regarding the effectiveness of its programs. Students will receive one survey in the final semester prior to graduation regarding their program during their time here. A second survey will occur within one year following graduation from or completion of a program, and will be sent to the student’s employer. This survey will focus on the preparation received at UTB. Please remember that responses to these surveys are critical to UTRGV excellence.

UTRGV University Policies

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

If you have a documented disability (physical, psychological, learning, or other disability which affects your academic performance) and would like to receive academic accommodations, please inform your instructor and contact Student Accessibility Services to schedule an appointment to initiate services. It is recommended that you schedule an appointment with Student Accessibility Services before classes start. However, accommodations can be provided at any time. Brownsville Campus: Student Accessibility Services is located in Cortez Hall Room 129 and can be contacted by phone at (956) 882-7374 (Voice) or via email at ability@utrgv.edu. Edinburg Campus: Student Accessibility Services is located in 108 University Center and can be contacted by phone at (956) 665-7005 (Voice), (956) 665-3840 (Fax), or via email at ability@utrgv.edu.

MANDATORY COURSE EVALUATION PERIOD

Students are required to complete an ONLINE evaluation of this course, accessed through your UTRGV account (http://my.utrgv.edu); you will be contacted through email with further instructions. Students who complete their evaluations will have priority access to their grades. Online evaluations will be available.

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and may be dropped from the course for excessive absences. UTRGV’s attendance policy excuses students from attending class if they are participating in officially sponsored university activities, such as athletics; for observance of religious holy days; or for military service. Students should contact the instructor in advance of the excused absence and arrange to make up missed work or examinations.

SCHOLASTIC INTEGRITY

As members of a community dedicated to Honesty, Integrity and Respect, students are reminded that those who engage in scholastic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course and expulsion from the University. Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to: cheating, plagiarism, and collusion; submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person; taking an examination for another person; any act designed to give unfair

This syllabus subject to change in order to better meet course objectives per discretion of instructor.
advantage to a student; or the attempt to commit such acts. Since scholastic dishonesty harms the individual, all students and the integrity of the University, policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly enforced (Board of Regents Rules and Regulations and UTRGV Academic Integrity Guidelines). All scholastic dishonesty incidents will be reported to the Dean of Students.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION, and VIOLENCE
In accordance with UT System regulations, your instructor is a “responsible employee” for reporting purposes under Title IX regulations and so must report any instance, occurring during a student’s time in college, of sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, or sexual harassment about which she/he becomes aware during this course through writing, discussion, or personal disclosure. More information can be found at www.utrgv.edu/equity including confidential resources available on campus.
The faculty and staff of UTRGV actively strive to provide a learning, working, and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect in an environment free from sexual misconduct and discrimination.

COURSE DROPS
According to UTRGV policy, students may drop any class without penalty earning a grade of DR until the official drop date. Following that date, students must be assigned a letter grade and can no longer drop the class. Students considering dropping the class should be aware of the “3-peat rule” and the “6-drop” rule so they can recognize how dropped classes may affect their academic success. The 6-drop rule refers to Texas law that dictates that undergraduate students may not drop more than six courses during their undergraduate career. Courses dropped at other Texas public higher education institutions will count toward the six-course drop limit.
The 3-peat rule refers to additional fees charged to students who take the same class for the third time.
